1. Between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 September 1953, the following aircraft were observed at Wiener Neustadt (O 48/X 34) airfield: 48 MiG-15s, including 26 in front of the flight control station, 12 along Badener Strasse, and 10 in the depression near the pyrotechnic plant; 2 Yak-11s; 1 mono-plane of an unidentified type near the flight control station; and about 3 Pe-2s near the northern temporary buildings. There was an 8/10 to 10/10 overcast at an altitude of about 1,000 meters, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h, poor visibility, with intermittent rain showers. The MiG-15s along Badener Strasse were guarded by sentries wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. No other personnel were observed at the field. West of the road sign at Badener Strasse were two radio trucks, including one with a rod antenna and one with a small pyramidal antenna with a disk on a mast about 6 meters high. The flight control station was guarded by sentries and frequented by officers and EM all wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. There was vehicular traffic [REDACTED] with drives wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. One Stalin-type tractor, 4 trucks and 2 field kitchens were parked in the sheds of the eastern garage installation. EM wearing coveralls were working on the engines of the trucks. Trucks [REDACTED] with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, moved to the field. No AA guns were observed in the southern AA gun emplacement. The area of the AA bunkers was guarded by sentries and a few personnel were observed there. The eastern AA gun emplacement was not occupied. Stripping work continued on the Pe-2s parked near the northern temporary buildings. Three Pe-2s were observed there.

2. At Theresienfeld, 2 MiG-15s and 1 Li-2 were parked in front of the hangar, 1 Il-28 was at the eastern side of the hangar, and 5 van-like trucks were parked north of the hangar. Trucks [REDACTED] and
